Our Ref: 775/18

Dear [REDACTED]

Freedom of Information Request

Thank you for your information request dated 30 August 2018 (received by Angus Council on 31 August 2018).

You requested the following information:

Please provide details of the current (as at today's date) average weekly rates and costs which privately funded care home residents are charged by the Council for each care home either owned and / or operated by the Council. When we refer to privately funded residents we are referring to those residents who are assessed as having capital above the upper limit of £27,250 (and excluding any entitlement to free care). Please provide the requested information on a per care home basis.

The following is the average cost to privately funded residents of the council's care homes as at 31 August 2018.

Place	Average Cost
Beech Hill House	£748.11
Seaton Grove	£707.67
Kinloch Care Centre	£660.85

In compiling responses to information requests we invariably use information which is routinely published on the Council's website or through its Publication Scheme. If you require further information please first check that the information you want is not routinely published as any such information is exempt from release in terms of Section 25 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 or Regulation 6(1)(b) of the Environmental Information (Scotland) Regulations 2004.

I hope that this information is of some help to you. Please note that the information contained in this reply is believed to be accurate as at today's date (unless otherwise indicated) but no warranty is given. Further, Angus Council does not accept liability for any loss, injury or damage which arises from the use of the information contained in this reply either by you or by any other party. Please refer to the information set out in the Appendix which explains your right to complain if you are unhappy with how the Council has dealt with your request.

If you have any queries, please ask for me on [REDACTED] or e-mail AHSCPDataProtection@angus.gov.uk

Yours sincerely

Your Right to Request a Review by the Council

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which Angus Council has dealt with your request for information under any of the above statutory instruments, you have a right to ask the council to review its actions and/or decisions regarding your request. If you wish to do this, you should make your request to the Service Leader – Legal & Democratic, Place Directorate, Angus Council, Angus House, Orchardbank Business Park, Forfar DD8 1AN or e-mail InformationGovernance@angus.gov.uk within 40 working days.

Your request must:

- be in writing (or recordable format);
- give your name and address for correspondence;
- give details of the information which you originally requested from the council; and
- give the reasons why you are dissatisfied with the way in which your application for information has been dealt with.

Your application for review will then be considered by the council's review panel. The review panel will write to you informing you of its decision not later than 20 working days after receipt of your request for a review. The review panel will also provide you with a statement of its reasons for arriving at the decision it has made.

Your Right to Appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner

If you are dissatisfied with a decision of the council's review panel (or where the review panel has not provided you with a response), you have the right to apply to the Scottish Information Commissioner for a decision as to whether your request for information has been dealt with by the council in accordance with the above statutory instruments.

Your application to the Scottish Information Commissioner must:

- be in a recordable format (letter, e-mail, audio tape etc);
- give your name and address for correspondence.
- give details of the request for information which you originally requested from the council;
- give details of why you were dissatisfied with the council's response to your original request;
- give details of why you were dissatisfied with the decision of the council's review panel.

In the case of an EIR or FOI request your application to the Scottish Information Commissioner must be made within 6 months of receipt of the decision of the council's review panel (or within 6 months of the date that the review panel should have responded). No such time limit applies under the 2009 Regulations.
